What You Missed at the StarChefs Rising Stars Revue

6/18/10 at 6:03 PM | Comment

Possibly because of all the marvelous beverages we drank, it took us an extra day to pull together this slideshow of the StarChefs.com Rising Stars Revue which went down at Ghirardelli Square on Wednesday night. We already knew all the 2010 honorees, but this was their night to shine, show off the dishes that got them there, and receive a hug and a token of appreciation from the gregarious and cheerful Antoinette Bruno. See our full slideshow of the event.

Sadly, like a comet, StarChefs won't be coming back through town for another couple of years, so take it all in...
